DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

3. With respect to Claim 1: the phrase "having a generally uniform thickness" is indefinite. It is unclear to the examiner how there can be a generally uniform thickness, when there are portions of protuberances through out the nonwoven fabric.

4. With respect to Claim 1: the phrase "make portions of said openings protuberated upward from said upper surface" is indefinite. An opening is a blank space, there is nothing there, and therefore it is unclear to the examiner how an opening can be protuberated. Does this mean the nonwoven web at the periphery of the opening is protuberated upward?

5. Claims 2 and 3 recite the limitation "said parts of the periphery portions of said plurality of openings". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. In Claim 1, "part" and "portion" are singular, and this is plural. The examiner suggest the wording "said part of the periphery portion of said each of said plurality of openings".

6. Claim 2 recites the limitation "said parts of the periphery portions of said plurality of openings which are protuberated upward" in lines 3-4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Claim 1, states portions of openings, not parts of the periphery portion of openings are protuberated.

Art Unit: 3761

7. Claim 4 recites the limitation "the portion" in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 1-7 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
